

Nee Tahi Buhn Band

ELECTION UPDATE: NOMINATION PROCESS & MEETING

Notice has been given to electors of the Nee Tahi Buhn Band (NTBB) that an election has been called to elect one (1) Chief, one (1) Deputy Chief, and two (2) Councillors for a four-year term starting in December 2026.

Notice has also been given that a Nomination Meeting for this election will be held on Thursday, October 29 between 6pm and 8pm at the Burns Lake Native Development Centre located at 485 Highway 16, Burns Lake, BC.

The purpose of this update is to provide more details regarding the nomination process and upcoming nomination meeting.

Nominators and seconders must attend the Nomination Meeting (online or in person) and submit their nomination form to me before the end of the meeting.

Nomination forms will be handed out at the Nomination Meeting and are available for those attending online by sending me an email request any time up to the start of the meeting. Nominees must submit their required paperwork and fee to me within three (3) days of the meeting to be considered.

Nominators, seconders, and nominees are encouraged to refer to the election rules (“Election Code”) regarding the nomination process and eligibility criteria for candidates. The Code, Nomination Meeting link, Elector List, and additional election information will be posted on the NTBB website (ntbb.ca).

Given under my hand at Vancouver, BC on Thursday, October 23, 2026.

Graeme Drew, Electoral Officer
